DOLLARS OF NEW DESIGN TO BE MINTED.

Mould of Each to Represent Ideals and Civic and Military Glory of Country.

WASHINGTON. May 30.—Dimes, quarters and half-dollars of new design will be minted after July 1. Secretary McAdoo announced today. For the first time since 1891 a change will be effected in these pieces.

The announcement disclosed that the half-dollar has failen practically into disuse. The new design was selected with the hope of restoring it to more general circulation.

The half-dollar and dime models were made by Adolph A. Weinman and the quarter dollars by Herman A. MacNell. Both are sculptors of note.

not to set themselves against the purpose of the nation, called upon young men to perform voluntary military service and defended his recent suggestion for an alliance of nations to preserve peace. He spoke at Arlington National cemetery before an audience made up largely of civil war veterans who applauded him vigorously.

While he declared he had no harshness in his heart for Americans of foreign birth and expected them still to love the sources of their origin, the president said "America must come first in every purpose we entertain and every man must count upon being cast out of our confidence, cast out even of our tolerance who does not submit to that great ruling principle."

Typifies Americans.

The design of the 25 cent piece is with the country to its own protection, Secretary McAdos's statement said Liberty, a full length figure, is shown stepping toward the country's gateway bearing upraised a shield, from which the covering is being drawn. The right hand bears an olive branch of peace. Above the feet '1916.'

The reverse side bears a figure of an eagle in full flight, wings extended and the inscription 'United States of the heart the phrases "In God We can the phrases of the design of the dime is simple, liberty, with a winged can be above.

At least a ton of bricks and mortar followed from the wall behind. On acount of the crowd it was impossible for several minutes to render aid to those injured. One of the dead died in a drug store nearby while another died in an ambulance.

The parade was considered one of the greatest popular demonstrations in the southwest. More than twenty-five thousand people, all marching, were in line, hearing American flags and banners with inscriptions favoring a larger army and navy, it required two hours and ton minutes to pass a given point.

Only those in the immediate neighborhood knew of the accident, and on account of the size of the crowd but few of the paraders were aware of the disaster.
